Terms and Conditions:

Applicants must be 21 years of age. Purchase of a 2012 Yosemite Gold Cup Raffle Ticket is subject to the Terms and Conditions set down on this form. Distribution of tickets is controlled by Southern California Equestrian Sports (SCES), a tax exempt 501(c)3 public charity. No tickets will be sold online. A minimum of 75 tickets must be sold, otherwise, ticket money will be refunded. The raffle horse will be available for pickup at the Clinton Anderson Academy in Stephenville, Texas directly after the winner is announced. SCES and Alexandra North are not responsible for board, shipping costs and/or taxes associated with the raffle horse after the winner is announced and do not guarantee the level of training received. Winner of the raffle horse is responsible for any and all travel expenses, board and transportation costs from Stephenville, Texas for their training day at the Clinton Anderson Academy with their raffle horse. Each prize winner must fill out IRS Form W-9 in order to claim their prize. SCES and Alexandra North reserve the right to pay the winner a cash value of $6,000.00 for the raffle horse if it becomes injured prior to the drawing, or if the winner is deemed unsuitable to receive the horse due to lack of experience, and/or ability to adequately and safely maintain the horse.
